Luke 13:31-35

New International Version – UK Jesus' sorrow for Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup> At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, 'Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you.' <sup>32</sup> He replied, 'Go and tell that fox, "I will keep on driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal." <sup>33</sup> In any case, I must press on today and tomorrow and the next day – for surely no prophet can die outside Jerusalem! <sup>34</sup> 'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing. <sup>35</sup> Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord."

Reflection on the Scripture by: THABANG JANUARY

Jesus' ministry in the Gospel according to Luke takes place in 2 locations. The first part of his ministry takes place in Galilee and the last part in Jerusalem where he is ultimately crucified. Luke makes an interesting revelation to show us that not all Pharisees were hostile to Jesus, as some came to warn Jesus about the threats against his life from Herod Antipas. So, they urged him to go somewhere else.

But Jesus wasn't about to be rushed, or to bend to the Pharisees' wishes. He was journeying toward Jerusalem. He had to go there. He knew that death awaited him there, and he had ministry work to do along the way. His mission included driving out demons and healing people as he headed resolutely toward Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is the Holy City, the home of the temple and the sacrificial rituals conducted in accord with Torah law. However, as the center of Godly worship, Jerusalem is also at the center of a cosmic struggle. Jerusalem had killed the prophets Uriah and Zechariah and had tried to kill Jeremiah. One of Jesus' three temptations took place on the pinnacle of the temple, and he will pronounce judgment on the city that had killed the prophets. The chief priests, scribes, and religious leaders of Jerusalem will seek to kill Jesus, and eventually will succeed.

Knowing he'd be killed there as other prophets had been, Jesus spoke of his love for his people. He used the image of a hen who gathers her chicks under her wings. It's a perfect picture of protection.

Jesus' lament shows his sorrow for sinners—Jerusalem's children. Their unwillingness to accept him would lead to judgment and desolation. Then, using words from Psalm 118, he pointed to the day when the enemy will be defeated. There will be rejoicing for all who have accepted Christ's offer of protection, the offer of salvation in his name.

Sunday 13th March 2022

Pray daily: Set up family time for prayer and devotions and stick to this arrangement. All devotions should always begin by with a prayer. Ask a family member to pray or one of the children.

Scripture Reading: Philippians 3:17-4:1 Ask them what they heard.

Discussion:

- Who do you look up to or who you would like to meet. Tell us why you admire this person and would like to meet them?
- What is it about this person that you like?
- What do you think this person has that makes them a good role model?
- Is it how much money they have or followers or that they wear the right clothes?

So, in the reading today Paul is talking about all the false teachers that were telling the people of Philippi how to behave and what to eat. They said that is how they would be proper Christians. Paul says that is not how you are a good Christian. Jesus often spoke out against the rules of the Jews if they were stopping people from helping those in need and if they excluded people who couldn’t carry out the rituals of the time.

Paul tells the Christians of Philippi that they need to follow him, Paul. Sometimes we follow people because we want to be just like them because they have what society values, like money and fame and followers but they are not good role models. Paul tells us not to be tempted by things that will distract us from God.

- Do you think your role model is someone that will bring you to God or take you away from God if you copy what they do?
- Was Jesus a good leader? Why or why not?
